Accessing and updating your Personal Data

You have the right to request a copy of the personal data about you which we hold in order to correct any inaccuracies and to object to our using your personal data for a marketing purpose, and this is known as a Subject Access Request.

To do this, you should contact us using the details set out below in the "Contact Us" section. There is no fee for requesting that your personal information is corrected, however in processing your request, our reasonable costs may be recovered if necessary if the relevant legislation allows. This covers such things as locating the information and supplying it to you.

Where we refuse to action your request to correct your personal information, you also have the right to request that a statement be associated with your personal information noting that you disagree with its accuracy.

Data Erasure

Known as the 'right to be forgotten' you may request that we delete all personal data about you which we hold, although we are limited by the law with regards to who this applies.

The conditions for erasure, as outlined in article 17 of GDPR, include the data no longer being relevant to original purposes for processing, or clients withdrawing consent.

For the Company, this only applies to data held for non-Live accounts. We are legally obligated NOT to delete any data for clients who have had live accounts with us for at least 7 years.

Data Portability

GDPR introduces data portability, which is the right for a client to receive the personal data concerning them, which they have previously provided, in a 'commonly used and machine-readable format' and have the right to transmit that data to another data controller. This means that if requested by a client, the Company will put all their data onto a CSV file and if requested send that file to another company.

Summary

With the introduction of the GDPR you have additional rights with regard to your Personal Data. Some of these may not be applicable to you due to additional regulatory obligations placed upon us which we are required to meet for all Live accounts that have been opened.

- Right to be informed

You have the right to be informed about what we do with your Personal Data, which is why we have made this Privacy Policy available to you on our website.

- Access to your Personal Data

You have the right to request a copy of the personal information that we hold about you, and if you wish to exercise that right please contact Compliance.cy@axitrader.com

- Correction of Personal Data

You can make a request for us to correct any personal data that we are processing about you which is incorrect.

- Right of erasure

You can request that we erase your personal data if there is no reason for us to continue using it. This right only applies in certain circumstances, and it is not a guaranteed or absolute right, as we have regulatory and legal obligations in certain circumstances to continue holding Personal Data for at least 7 years.

- Right to data portability

This right allows you to obtain a copy of your Personal Data which we hold in a format that will enable you or us to transfer it to another organisation. Multiple requests of this type may incur a fee to cover reasonable expenses.

- Right to restrict processing of personal data

You have the right in certain circumstances to request that we suspend our processing of your personal data. For example, you have the right to opt out of Marketing emails.
